Tobias Nicklas

Title: Lives of the Apostles or Foundation Narratives?

Abstract: I will focus on different genres of (mainly extracanonical) Apostle stories, that is, besides examples from the well-known early apocryphal Acts some of the later Apostle stories (and Apostle lists) including biographical elements. My main question will be in how far the biographical elements serve the overall purpose of texts which are partly travel narratives, foundation stories or aetiologies for liturgical services.
