

International Conference: Biographically Grounded Literature in Late Hellenistic and Early Imperial Times

Bern, 24. – 26. Juni 2024

Johan Thom

Title: Pythagoras the Messenger from the Gods

Abstract: Ancient biographies contained diverging opinions concerning Pythagoras' exceptional ontological status; some even identified him with a manifestation of Apollo. In this paper I will discuss the various options and show that according to most, Pythagoras represented a focal point of the divine and that he had some form of mediating role between the divine and human spheres.